

AGENDA

2012 ANNUAL REVIEW NISQUALLY CHINOOK RECOVERY PLAN

Nisqually Tribe Natural Resources Conference Room
Tuesday, February 7, 2012

The Nisqually Indian Tribe and Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife invite you to the second annual Nisqually Chinook Recovery Plan Annual Review.

We will share updates on Chinook salmon status from 2011 sampling, actions taken toward Chinook recovery in 2011, and plans for 2012. This information will be used to evaluate assumptions in the Nisqually Chinook Recovery plan and to develop and prioritize specific actions for 2012 as part of our Adaptive Management Process.

Time	Presenter(s)	Agenda Item
10:00 AM	David Troutt, NIT	Greetings Overview of 2011 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Brief overview of plan elements 2011 Chinook Return, harvest, and escapement Weir (pictures, lessons learned) Looking forward to 2012
10:40 AM	Larry Phillips, WDFW	WDFW Overview <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Creel Survey Smolt Trapping Sport Harvest Escapement Surveys and Estimate Pre-season forecast
11:20 AM	Craig Smith, NIT & Bob Conrad, NWIFC	Nisqually Tribe Harvest Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Selective Gear Testing Study Commercial Fishery Plans for 2012
12:00 PM	Chris Ellings, NIT	Salmon Recovery Activities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review Habitat Restoration activities from 2011 by various groups Plans for 2012 Overall Conclusion, questions?
12:40 PM		Adjourn